

GLOBAL VOICES Project

Pestalozzi Outreach Education Programme is looking for volunteers from the Black and Minority Ethnic communities in East Sussex to train as classroom visitors.

Are you interested in sharing your culture, traditions, language and religion with local school children?

✓ Upon successful completion of the training, it is expected that Pestalozzi will be able to arrange and co-ordinate visits to schools with expenses and a small bursary being offered.

✓ The aim of the programme is to enhance schools' responsibility towards promoting community cohesion as well as developing the volunteers. School based classroom workshops

✓ Volunteers will be asked to attend 2 or 3 training sessions - travel expenses and refreshments will be provided.
